

POLICY ON CHARGING and REMISSIONS

The law states very clearly that education during normal school hours is to be free of any compulsory charge to parents and the school warmly endorses that principle and is committed to uphold the legal requirements.

It is recognised, however, that many educationally valuable activities have been and will continue to be dependent on financial contributions in whole or in part from parents. Without that financial support, the school would find it quite impossible to maintain the quality and breadth of the education programme provided for pupils. The school's concern is to keep financial contributions to a reasonable minimum and to ensure as far as possible that all children are able to take part, irrespective of their circumstances.

The law recognises that charges may be made to parents in certain defined circumstances – provided that each school has identified the activities for which charges will be made and has explained the basis on which charges may be reduced or waived for certain pupils. The Governing Body of The Crypt School has decided that until further notice its Policy will be as follows:

1. Day Visits: For visits occurring during school time the school will invite a voluntary contribution from parents to meet costs. For visits outside school time, parents will be charged for all allowable costs.*
2. Residential Visits During School Time: The school will invite voluntary contributions from parents to meet costs other than children's board and lodgings. If less than 50% of the visit falls outside of school sessions, the trip is defined as being in school time. The total length of the visit is measured in half days, and each school session represents one half day.
3. Residential Visits Outside School Time: Parents will be charged for the full cost of the visit including all allowable costs* and board and lodging. If more than 50% of the visit falls outside of school sessions, the trip is defined as being outside school time. The total length of the visit is measured in half days, and each school session represents one half day.

* Allowable costs include: The pupil's travel and subsistence costs; materials, books, instruments and other equipment; non-teaching staff; costs of teaching staff where separately engaged under a contract for services for the visit or activity; entrance fees to museums, castles, theatres, etc; insurance costs, costs for staff training associated to enable safe running of the activity, and at the Governors' discretion any other costs incurred as a result of these optional activities.

4. Any visit required because of recognised public examinations, the National Curriculum or the law on Religious Education: As for Paragraph 2.
5. Instrumental Music on an individual basis: A tuition fee is levied for instrumental tuition provided during school hours and a small charge is made for the hire of the musical instruments used in individual (or small group) tuition. The charge is waived in respect of children whose parents are in receipt of benefits as defined under remissions.
6. The school will ask for a contribution towards the cost of materials for Food Technology lessons, and will ask pupils to bring in some ingredients.
7. Classroom Materials: No charge will be made for materials or equipment, other than as listed above. Parents are asked to provide personal writing implements, geometrical drawing equipment, a calculator, an atlas and a dictionary. However, for certain practical activities parents may be invited to provide materials on a voluntary basis. Where parents would like to keep the finished product, the school reserves the right to charge the cost or require the supply of the necessary materials. Students upon entry into Year 12 may be asked to purchase text books from an academic department at a price no greater than the cost. At the end of the course the department may (at its sole discretion) agree to purchase from students (at a mutually agreed price) those books that are in a good condition.

8. Clothing: parents are required to provide school uniform, sports wear, and a protective apron for practical work in accordance with the criteria set down by the school from time to time.
9. Breakages: Parents will be required to meet the costs of all breakages, damage and/or loss resulting from a pupil's actions, behaviour or negligence.
10. Examination Fees : please see separate policy
